Update

January 2010
North Haven High School

Junior Planning Evening

January 26th @ 6:30pm

in the NHHS Cafeteria. Refreshments will be sponsored by the PTSA. Our speaker this year is Karen Guastelle, Dean of Undergraduate Admissions at Sacred Heart University. She will present on the various aspects of college admissions. Preliminary class rank will be available at the conclusion of the evening.

Study Skills Review

Study skills are an essential part of academic success.

Below are some quick tips to make the grade!

1. Write down your assignments
2. Decide on a place you will study each day
3. Decide on a time you will do your homework each day
4. Take short breaks during study/homework sessions
5. Review each night what was discussed in class
6. When studying for a test, ask a friend to quiz you
7. Ask teachers for help if you are having trouble understanding a concept

NAVIANCE

Your New Information Source!

NHHS is very happy to announce the arrival of NAVIANCE. This student information program is your location to search for colleges, find careers that match you, get to know your personality type and learning style and more!

Over the course of your high school years you will use this program to:

- Conduct college searches
- View which colleges have accepted our students
- Identify colleges of interest to you
- Search for Careers
- Search for Scholarships
- Register to meet with college representatives
- Email your school counselor
- Apply to colleges (still under construction)

All freshmen have been introduced to the program and completed the learning styles inventory.

Sophomores are currently being contacted by the Career Center to access the program and complete a career inventory.

Juniors will soon be working with their school counselor to gain access to the program and begin working on completing a college search and resume!
